SCHOOL POLICY

Student Council

EFFECTIVE DATE: _____

REVISION HISTORY:

As amended on:

11 October 2016

STUDENT COUNCIL WILL BE ELECTED AS FOLLOWS

- Only Grade 7 students may serve on the Student Council.
- One main and one sub member per gender will be chosen annually:
 - Head Boy
 - Under Head Boy
 - Head Girl
 - Under Head Girl
- Only current Grade 4–6 learners and teachers of the current year may choose a maximum of _____ learners.
- The Council may not be more than _____ % of the current year's class group. The headmaster will determine the size of the Council, not exceeding _____ members.
- The Council will be announced during the annual prize giving.
- The election will be held via closed vote. Votes will be kept safe during the academic year.
- As the election is done via vote counting, the headmaster or teachers should agree that members that leave the school may be replaced with the next ranking learner on the list.
- Council members must commit him / her to the tasks given diligently, honestly and precisely and rather play a supportive role than act like policemen.

- The Grade 7 educator will be the yearly council-link and will ensure that:
 - members get trained in the 1st semester
 - regular Council meetings held
 - routine tasks will be co-ordinated and followed to the letter
 - all Council tasks taken on will be under members leadership
 - a year-end function, within budget and school policy, will be held for the council and entire Grade 7
